HALLOWEEN @ SOUTH POPLAR: OCTOBER 31ST

The countdown to Halloween is on for many excited & eager students (and staff). We are looking forward to a fun, festive, and far-from-scary day, here are South Poplar.

Students have options regarding what to wear on October 31st:

- ✓ Costumes
- ✓ Orange & Black clothing
- ✓ Uniforms

We want all students to have a fabulous and fun day! If you choose to send your child in a costume, there are a few important things that you need to know:

1. No weapons of any kind.
2. No full face masks.
3. No blood or gore.
4. Must be easy to remove for bathroom visits.
5. All students will participate in Pumpkin Olympics in the morning (may be challenging in some costume choices).

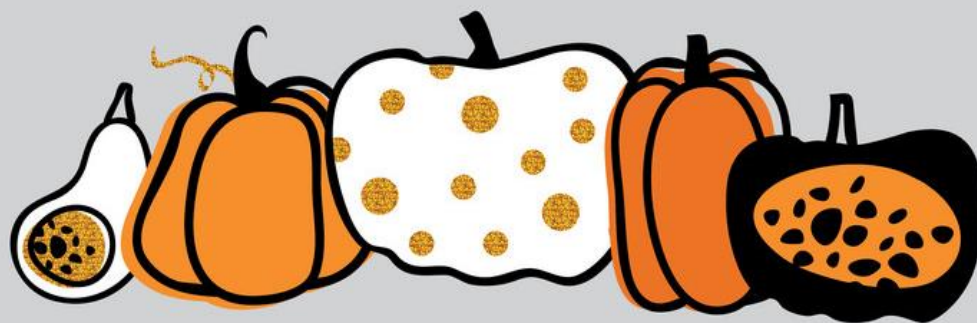

Pumpkin Olympics are a super fun South Poplar tradition, that will be happening on the morning of the 31st. Mrs. Yeomans is hard at work planning and organizing fabulous activities for our entire school community to participate in.

We are looking forward to playful pandemonium at this pumpkin-palooza!

Questions about Halloween activities happening in the classroom? Please speak with your child's teacher.

Happy Halloween
